

Participant Rights and Responsibilities - Greg Baird

Next Level Jobs Workforce Ready Grant (non-credit bearing)

Participant Rights and Responsibilities

Next Level Jobs—part of Governor Holcomb’s Next Level Indiana agenda—aims to equip working-age Hoosiers and Indiana employers with the training and skills they need to succeed in the 21st Century. Through the Workforce Ready Grant, working-age Hoosiers can enroll in no- to low-cost training programs in any one of Indiana’s 5 high-demand sectors: Advanced Manufacturing, Building & Construction, Health & Life Sciences, IT & Business Services, and Transportation & Logistics. Hoosiers can earn high-value certificates in these areas through approved training providers located throughout the state.

Thank you for showing interest in becoming a Workforce Ready Grant participant. As part of the enrollment process, all participants are to be made aware of and agree to their rights and responsibilities as a Workforce Ready Grant participant.

Participant Rights:

A WRG NCB participant...

1. May receive up to $5,000 for training program costs. Covered training costs include tuition, ancillary expenses and associated certification assessment fees. The grant amount is paid directly to the training provider on the behalf of the eligible participant. Participants are not entitled to the full $5,000.
2. Has the right to be informed of any training programs in excess of the WRG NCB $5,000 tuition cap.
3. Has the right to one WRG NCB paid attempt of the associated assessment.
4. Has the right to receive training in an appropriate learning environment including access to all tools, equipment, materials and technology necessary to successfully complete the training.
5. Has the right to file a grievance. An applicant for or participant in any Indiana Department of Workforce Development (IDWD) program or service, including the NextLevel Jobs Workforce Ready Grant program, has the right to file a grievance if the applicant or participant believes there has been:
6. A violation of the implementation of program.
7. Discrimination against the applicant or participant on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions, sex stereotyping, transgender status, and gender identity), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability, or political affiliation or belief, or
8. Fraud, criminal abuse, or other criminal activity.

Any participant wishing to discuss a grievance can contact the IDWD via email at: policy@dwd.in.gov.

Participant Responsibilities:

Every WRG NCB participant...

1. Must meet WRG NCB eligibility requirements. The individual
2. Must have a high school diploma or equivalent, but less than a college degree (from any accredited institution).
3. Must be a U.S. citizen (or eligible resident).
4. Must be an Indiana resident.
